Write your reasons either for or against the statement:

Reading a newspaper is better than reading news on the internet.

I think it is important for us to know what is happening in the world. Newspapers are a good way to find out the latest news, because they are available everywhere and cheap. However, the news on the internet is more interesting because you can read and watch some comments. In my opinion you can understand the news better when you read it on the internet.

Write about a story or film you like.

Titanic my favourite film and story is about the sinking of a luxury ship during its first voyage, based on the true story of the Titanic disaster that occurred in 1912. This film was released in 1997. It tells the story of an adventurer young man who falls in love with a pretty young lady. The ship hits an iceberg and sinks quickly. More than a thousand people die in the wreckage, including her lover.

Project: Think of a short traditional folk tale or create a new one.

Robin Hood was a popular hero of England. In most tales about him, Robin Hood leads an outlaw men in daring forest adventures. Robin Hood and his men fought authority and robbed the rich to give to the poor. For more than 600 years, the adventures of Robin Hood have been celebrated in stories, poems, ballads, and films.

Choose one tourist sight in your town or city and write a paragraph about it.

The Castle of Saladin which is located in my coastal city Lattakia was built on a high mountain surrounded by a forest. The Byzantine Empire captured the site and it remained under their control until 1108. They also gave the castle much of its current appearance. In 1188 it fell to the forces of Saladin after a three-day siege. In 2006 this castle was recognized as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Write one paragraph describing a city in Syria.

Aleppo is located in the north of Syria. It is the second largest city after the capital Damascus. It is also an ancient city and has a beautiful castle, a beautiful museum and old shops. The city's importance in history has been its location at one end of the Silk Road. Aleppo is one of the most developed commercial and industrial cities in the Middle East.

Student book page 40

Imagine you are on holiday. Write a postcard to your friend at home about something funny that happened to you.

Once I was on holiday with some of my friends. We played everything and had a lot of fun but the funniest thing that I will never forget is when I disappeared for about 5 hours. They looked for me for hours but in vain. They were about to call the police when I heard them I uncovered my place on the attic where I hid. They were angry with me but it turned to be the funniest thing that happened to me on a holiday.

Write a paragraph about a medical discovery.
Give your reasons why you think it is important.

Alexander Fleming's penicillin is the world first antibiotic which completely developed the war against deadly bacteria. Famously, the Scottish biologist accidentally discovered the anti-bacterial in 1928. During the world war 2 two other scientists were responsible for the mass distribution of penicillin, and their development of the substance ended up saving millions of lives.

Choose the most interesting question from exercise 6 and write a paragraph about it, giving details.

- 1- Why is the sky blue?
- 2- How does temperature change the taste of food and drink?
- 3- What happens to your memory when you grow old?
- 4- Why do your eyes water when you slice onions?
- 5- Is there a connection between being cold and catching a cold?

Why is the sky blue?

Well I think that gases and particles in Earth's atmosphere scatter sunlight in all directions. Blue light is scattered more than other colours because it travels as shorter, smaller waves (short wavelength light). This is why we see a blue sky most of the time.

Imagine you are a counsellor. Write some advice for the people in the following situations:

- Arif is looking for some new hobbies.
- Saad thinks his brother is spending too much time on the Internet.
- Basma is worried about moving to a new neighbourhood.

Dear Basma

It's natural to worry when you start something new. But don't forget that other people may be new too. You'll soon make friends if you smile and talk to people. And don't forget to keep in touch with your old friends – you'll have lots to tell them.

Student book page 77 / Activity book page 61

Write a composition about what you enjoy doing most.

Write a paragraph about a job you would like to do.

I want to be an artist and a teacher. I want to teach: writing, music, and painting to kids. Or maybe work with old people. If I could find a way to bring old people and young people together in a learning environment. I think that would be great. If I can make my own music part time and be good enough at the arts to teach kids and have old people volunteer to work with the kids as well that would be ideal.
