My college course is really good. It is about design and buildings. I want to be a famous architect in the future. Our college day is very busy. It starts with lectures at 9.00. There is a break for everyone at 10.30 and then we usually have a tutorial at 11.00. We have a really good tutor. His name is Essa. Our lectures after lunch start at 1.30 and they finish at 3.00. After this we have independent study time. Most students use this time to study their notes from the day's lectures and tutorial in the library.
